

READING GROUP: INDIGENOUS TEXTS & CONTEXTS

MEETINGS: MAY 20 | JUNE 17 | JULY 8 | JULY 29
@ 6:30-7:30 PM

Are you curious to learn more about Indigenous literatures? This reading group offers an informal setting in which we discuss a diverse range of Indigenous texts in relation to their cultural and political contexts. Our goal is to work against the marginalisation of Indigenous voices in German academic and cultural debates. We want to create a safe space in which we listen and learn together, and provide opportunities to challenge and broaden our understanding of Indigenous literatures, lifeworlds and concerns.

Everybody is welcome! Students, lecturers, admins, library patrons, friends & family, ...

Meetings take place on Zoom and are in English.
